ANGLICAN CHURCH

GROWING IN CHRISTLIKENESS

Sunday, November 8, 2026
Remembrance Sunday
10:30 am

Welcome to St. Mary & St. Martha!

This booklet will hopefully help make you feel more comfortable, especially if this is new to you.

We follow a particular order of service that is grounded in liturgy or "the work of the people", using a liturgical form of service that walks us through the story of Jesus Christ in a sequence that brings home the good news of God's grace to us. Each week we are brought back to the amazing story of God with us.

As a community we seek to experience the power of God in our lives. This involves gathering to worship our Lord and Saviour, then gathering in fellowship and at various events put on by the church. We encourage connections that express the love that flows through God's church through affection, patience, forgiveness, compassion, and serving those in need.

We recognise the enduring presence of Indigenous people connected to and on this land. We are grateful for the opportunity to gather on this territory and work in this community, and we commit ourselves to the work of reconciliation with Indigenous peoples.

Opening Response

We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. 1 Thessalonians 4:14

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

Call to Worship: Eternal Father, Strong to Save

Eternal Father, strong to save,
whose are restrains the restless wave,
who bids the mighty ocean deep its own appointed bounds to keep:
we cry, O God of majesty,
for those in peril on the sea.

O Christ, whose voice the waters heard and hushed their raging at your word, who walked across the surging deep and in the storm lay calm in sleep:
we cry, O Lord of Galilee,
for those in peril on the sea.

Creator Spirit, by whose breath were fashioned sea and sky and earth;
who made the stormy chaos cease
and gave us life and light and peace:
we cry, O spirit strong and free,
for those in peril on the sea.

O Trinity of love and power,
preserve their lives in danger's hour;
from rock and tempest, flood and flame,
protect them by your holy name,
and to your glory let there be glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

Welcome Sit

The Rev. Canon Mark Regis, Rector

In this solemn hour of remembrance, we honour all those who have endured the horrors of war and given their lives in the cause of regaining and securing peace in the world.

In their memory we are gathered. Colours are dipped, a sacred silence is observed, and wreaths are laid.

We also honour all those who have returned from war — our many veterans. We honour their sacrifice as well and we thank them for their resolve in helping us to be grateful Canadians, never forgetting the great sacrifice that is the cost of the freedom we enjoy.

We recognize all our men and women in uniform today — in the Regular and the Reserve Forces. We give thanks for their calling, commitment, and courage in the wide range of operations for which they are deployed in the interests of national defence and international security. We remember their families and the sacrifices they make when their loved ones are far from home.

We pray for world leaders, that they and all others take counsel for the sake of peace within and among the nations. Pray with me that in all their deliberations they may be guided by God's will for good will and peace among all peoples.

Today we pause to remember. May all who died in war rest in peace and rise in glory. May all our veterans receive the respect and care we owe them. May all in uniform who serve our country and the freedom of the whole world know of our pride in them and of our prayers for them.

Archbishop Fred Hiltz

Prayers of Preparation Sit/Kneel

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Commandments

Our Lord Jesus Christ said: 'The first commandment is this: "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength."

'The second is this: "Love your neighbour as yourself." There is no other commandment greater than these. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these your laws in our hearts.

The Collect

Peace in the World

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed: Create in the hearts of all people the true love of peace, and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquillity your kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Remembrance Sunday

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Act of Remembrance

Poem: In Flanders Fields Sit

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Reading of the Roll Stand

Let us remember before God and commend to his sure keeping those who have died for their country in conflict; Those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure, and all who have lived and died in the service of humanity.

Here shall be read the names of all those from this parish who have given their lives in military service.

They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

Laying of Wreaths

When you go home, tell them of us and say, for your tomorrow we gave our today.

Instrumental: The Last Post

One minute of silence

The bell will toll 108 times in remembrance
Of the years passed since the ending of the Great War

Instrumental: The Rouse

Hymn: Royal Anthem

God save our gracious King
Long live our noble King,
God save the King:
Send him victorious, happy and glorious, Long to reign over us: God save the King.

Hymn: National Anthem

O Canada!
Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Father of all, remember your holy promise, and look with love on all your people, living and departed. On this day we especially ask that you would hold forever all who have suffered during war, those who returned scarred by warfare, those who waited anxiously at home, and those who returned wounded, and disillusioned; those who mourned, and those communities that were diminished and suffered loss. Remember too those who acted with kindly compassion, those who bravely risked their own lives for their comrades, and those who in the aftermath of war, worked tirelessly for a more peaceful world.

And as you remember them, remember us, O Lord; grant us peace in our time and a longing for the day when people of every language, race, and nation will be brought into the unity of Christ's kingdom. This we ask in the name of the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Word of God

First Reading

Sit

A reading from the prophet Amos, chapter five, beginning at the eighteenth verse.

18 Woe to you who long for the day of the LORD!
Why do you long for the day of the LORD?
That day will be darkness, not light.
19 It will be as though a man fled from a lion
only to meet a bear,
as though he entered his house and rested his hand on the wall
only to have a snake bite him.
20 Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, not light – pitch-dark, without a ray of brightness?
21 'I hate, I despise your religious festivals;
your assemblies are a stench to me.
22 Even though you bring me burnt offerings and grain offerings,
I will not accept them.
Though you bring choice fellowship offerings,
I will have no regard for them.
23 Away with the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.
24 But let justice roll on like a river, righteousness like a never-failing stream!

Amos 5:18-24

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Psalm 70 will be read responsively, by whole verse.

1 O God, make speed to save me;
O Lord, make haste to help me.
2 Let those who seek my life be put to shame and confusion;
let them be turned back and disgraced who wish me evil.
3 Let those who mock and deride me turn back because of their shame.
4 But let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation say always, 'Great is the Lord!'
5 As for me, I am poor and needy;
come to me quickly, O God.
6 You are my help and my deliverer;
O Lord, do not delay.

Psalm 70

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter to the Thessalonians, chapter four, beginning at the thirteenth verse.

13 Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. 14 For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. 15 According to the Lord's word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. [16] For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. [17] After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord for ever.

[18] Therefore encourage one another with these words.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia Stand
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel Reading
Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew, chapter twenty-five, beginning at the first verse.
Glory to you, O Lord.

'At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. [2] Five of them were foolish and five were wise. [3] The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. [4] The wise ones, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. [5] The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.
[6] 'At midnight the cry rang out: "Here's the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!"
[7] 'Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. [8] The foolish ones said to the wise, "Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out."

9 ‘“No,” they replied, “there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.”
10 ‘But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived.
The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut.
11 ‘Later the others also came. “Lord, Lord,” they said, “open the door for us!”
12 ‘But he replied, “Truly I tell you, I don’t know you.”
13 ‘Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.

Matthew 25:1-13

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

The Nicene Creed Stand

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Hymn: Be Still, My Soul
Be still my soul the Lord is on thy side
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain
Leave to thy God to order and provide
In ev'ry change He faithful will remain
Be still my soul thy best thy heav'nly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end

Be still my soul thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as He has the past
Thy hope thy confidence let nothing shake
All now mysterious shall be bright at last
Be still my soul the waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while He dwelt below

Be still my soul when dearest friends depart
And all is darkened in the vale of tears
Then shalt thou better know His love His heart

Who comes to soothe thy sorrow and thy fears
Be still my soul thy Jesus can repay
From His own fullness all He takes away

Be still my soul the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord
When disappointment grief and fear are gone
Sorrow forgot love's purest joys restored
Be still my soul when change and tears are past
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last

Prayers of Intercession Sit/Kneel

Remaining in God's presence, let us pray to Almighty God,responding to the petition Lord, in your mercy; with Hear our prayer.

Almighty Father, we thank you for bringing us together this Remembrance Sunday to recall with tenderness and respect those who lost their lives from this community and the many thousands further afield in the wars of this century and the last. We pray for all those still caught up in conflicts across the world and acknowledge what may be our own confusion about war and the use of weapons. Father, help us to meet with you in these moments of worship and make us ever mindful of your goodness towards us and strengthen us to be aware of the needs of others. As we pray for peace, give us peace in our hearts.
Lord in your mercy; Hear our prayer.

We pray for the leaders of the nations, that you will guide them in the ways of freedom, justice and truth.
Lord in your mercy; Hear our prayer.

We pray for those who bear arms on behalf of the nation, that they may have discipline and discernment, courage and compassion.
Lord in your mercy; Hear our prayer.

We pray for our enemies, and those who wish us harm, that you will turn the hearts of all to kindness and friendship.
Lord in your mercy; Hear our prayer.

We pray for the wounded and the captive, the grieving and the homeless, that in all their trials they may know your love and support.
Lord in your mercy; Hear our prayer.

Most holy God and Father, hear our prayers for all who strive for peace and all who fight for justice. Help us, who today remember the cost of war, to work for a better tomorrow; and, as we commend to you lives lost in terror and conflict, bring us all, in the end, to the peace of your presence; through Christ our Lord.

We give thanks for our beloved parish family of St. Mary and St. Martha, lifting up especially these members: Elsa Farquharson; Coria Findley; and Ouida Forde, and their families.
Lord in your mercy; Hear our prayer.

We pray too for those we know who are ill, in hospital or in care homes, and we remember to give thanks for those who are on the road to recovery.
Lord in your mercy; Hear our prayer.

Father God, you know our hearts and share our sorrows. We are hurt by our parting from those whom we loved: when we suffer at the loss we have sustained, when we long for true words of comfort, turn our grief and affliction to firmer hope in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lord in your mercy; Hear our prayer.

Almighty and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by death or life: hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day; fulfil in them the purpose of your love; and bring us all, with them, to your eternal joy.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Confession & Absolution

Sit/Kneel

Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Almighty God, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

Stand

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

Offertory Hymn: O Healing River Stand

O healing river, send down your waters,
Send down your waters upon this land.
O healing river, send down your waters,
And wash the blood from off the sand.

This land is parching, this land is burning,
No seed is growing in the barren ground.
O healing river, send down your waters,
O healing river, send your waters down.

Let the seed of freedom awake and flourish,
Let the deep roots nourish, let the tall stalks rise.
O healing river, send down your waters,
O healing river, from out of the skies.

The Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow!
Praise Him all creatures here below!
Praise Him above ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

Eternal God, in Jesus Christ we behold your glory. Receive the offering of your people gathered before you, and open our hearts and mouths to praise your great salvation, the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer of Consecration Stand

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Redeemer. He is your living Word, through whom you have created all things. By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature. He lived and died as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering,to bring release to those who place their hope in you; and so he won for you a holy people. He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows, and to give up his life on the cross, that he might shatter the chains of evil and death, and banish the darkness of sin and despair. By his resurrection he brings us into the light of your presence. Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
Lord God of power and might,
Heav'n and earth are full,
Full of your glory.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna,
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes,
Who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna,
Hosanna in the highest.

Sit/Kneel

Holy and gracious God, accept our praise, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread and gave you thanks, saying, "Take, and eat: this is my body which is broken for you." In the same way he took the cup, saying, "This is my blood which is shed for you. When you do this, you do it in memory of me." Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we offer you this bread and this cup, giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you. We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church. Gather into one all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory through your Servant, Jesus Christ. All glory and honour are yours, Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us.
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of Bread

"I am the bread of life," says the Lord. "Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst."
Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!

The gifts of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Communion Worship: I Am the Bread, the Bread of Life Sit

I am the bread, the bread of life;
Who comes to me will never hunger.
I am the bread, the bread of heaven;
Who feeds on me will never die.
And as you eat, remember me
My body broken on the tree:
My life was given to set you free,
And I'm alive for evermore.

I am the vine, the living vine;
Apart from me you can do nothing.
I am the vine, the real vine;
Abide in me and I in you.
And as you drink, remember me
My blood was shed upon the tree:
My life was given to set you free,
And I'm alive for evermore.

So eat this bread, and drink this wine,
And as you do, receive this life of mine.
All that I am, I give to you,
That you may live for evermore.

Communion Worship: Healer of Our Every Ill Sit

Healer of our every Ill,
Light of each tomorrow,
Give us peace beyond our fear,
And hope beyond our sorrow.

You who know our fears and sadness,
Grace us with your peace and gladness.
Spirit of all comfort: fill our hearts.

In the pain and joy beholding
how your grace is still unfolding,
Give us all your vision: God of love.

Give us strength to love each other,
Every sister, every brother.
Spirit of all kindness: be our guide.

You who know each thought and feeling,
Teach us all your way of healing.
Spirit of compassion: fill each heart.

Prayer After Communion Sit/Kneel

God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The Lord look upon you with favour and grant you peace; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Closing Worship: How Great Thou Art Stand

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the works thy hands hath made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul
My Saviour God to Thee
How great Thou art
How great Thou art
Then sings my soul
My Saviour God to Thee

How great Thou art
How great Thou art

But when I think that God his Son not sparing,
Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim, "My God, how great thou art!"

Sending Out Stand

With the grace and rest of Jesus Christ at work within us, go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
